Camille Somoza-Castelló is a Senior Associate Attorney in the firm's Bankruptcy & Creditors' Rights Practice Group. Prior to becoming an Associate, Camille served as a law clerk and summer associate for the firm from April 2013 until January 2015.

Camille works together with senior attorneys representing financial institutions, mortgage servicers, asset-based lenders, auto-finance corporations, commercial landlords, trade creditors, bonding companies, condominium and homeowner associations, contractors, and many other companies. Her main duties include preparing legal opinions and memoranda, conducting research on state and federal matters, drafting motions, providing analysis and advice, assisting in the preparation of articles published by renowned news sources, reviewing and preparing contracts, and assisting senior attorneys in the management of the cases.

As a law clerk and summer associate at Ferraiuoli, Camille was responsible for reviewing and preparing contracts, preparing legal opinions and memoranda, conducting research on state and federal matters, drafting motions, and assisting in the preparation of articles published by renowned news sources. She gained experience in bankruptcy proceedings and creditor's rights, litigation, and further experience in motion practice.

Prior to joining Ferraiuoli, she had acquired practical experience in litigation, motion practice, insurance law, and administrative procedures. Camille is currently in the process of becoming a mediator certified by the Supreme Court of Puerto Rico.
